Pursuant to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Civil Rules of this District, the Court hereby establishes the following consolidated schedule for discovery in these related cases. Fed. R. Civ. P. 1.

1. Expert Disclosures:

- A. Plaintiff(s) shall file and serve a document identifying by full name, address, and telephone number each person whom Plaintiff(s) expects to call as an expert on all non-damages related issues at trial and certifying that a written report prepared and signed by the expert pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2)(B) or, where allowed, a report prepared by counsel has been disclosed to the other parties by February 2, 2024. Plaintiffs specifically reserve the right to name additional damages related experts during the next phase of discovery.

- B. Defendant(s) shall file and serve a document identifying by full name, address, and telephone number each person whom Defendant(s) expects to call as an expert on all non-damages related issues at trial and certifying that a written report prepared and signed by the expert pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2)(B) or, where allowed, a report prepared by counsel has been disclosed to the other parties by March 2, 2024. Defendants specifically reserve the right to name additional damages related experts during the next phase of discovery.
2. Records Custodians: Counsel shall file and serve affidavits of records custodian witnesses proposed to be presented by affidavit at trial no later than March 2, 2024. Objections to such affidavits must be made within 14 days after the service of the disclosures. See Fed. R. Evid. 803(6), 902(11), or 902(12) and Local Civil Rule 16.02(D)(3) (D.S.C.).
 3. Discovery: All discovery except that related solely to compensatory damages, including Independent Medical Exams of Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs' and Defendants' Damages Expert Disclosures, and discovery related to those Damages Expert Disclosures shall be completed no later than March 29, 2024. All requests relevant to this phase of discovery shall be served in time for the responses thereto to be served by this date. De Bene Esse depositions must be completed by the discovery deadline. No motions relating to discovery shall be filed until counsel have consulted and attempted to resolve the matter as required by Local Civil Rule 7.02 (D.S.C.) and have had a telephone conference with Judge Coggins in an attempt to resolve the matter informally. The request for a telephone conference should be made within the time limit prescribed by local rule for filing such a motion. Attorneys should send a request for a telephone conference via e-mail to: coggins_ecf@scd.uscourts.gov

The parties shall set forth their respective positions in their request.

Within 15 days of the entry of this Order, each party shall designate at least one or more attorney representatives that will be present at any properly noticed deposition, allocating sufficient resources to avoid delays caused by scheduling conflicts. The parties shall consult and attempt to resolve any scheduling conflicts. In the event that deposition dates cannot be agreed upon after good-faith attempt, the party seeking the deposition shall request a telephone conference with the Court as described above.

4. Motions: All dispositive motions, Daubert motions, and all other motions, except those to complete discovery, those nonwaivable motions made pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. 5. Mediation: Mediation shall be completed in this case on or before February 16, 2024. See Judge Coggins' Standing Mediation Order (setting forth mediation requirements).

Pending the outcome of the dispositive motions filed with the Court, the parties agree to reconvene and submit an additional scheduling order for the Court's consideration for the conclusion of discovery related solely to compensatory damages, including Independent Medical Exams of Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs' and Defendants' Damages Expert Disclosures, and any necessary discovery related to those Damages Expert Disclosures.
